CATHERINE

PHOTOGRAPHED BY RANDALL DE LIMA

'The nakedness of woman is the work of God,' wrote William Blake in Proverbs of Hell. A fitting description we believe for 18-year-old elfin-faced Catherine Rankin, who at a slender five feet two inches, has the compensating factor of a large-nippled 34B-20-34 set of statistics to match. Catherine was born in the former colony of British Honduras, these days called Belize, in central America, but now home is the much less steamy Virginia Water in Surrey. Catherine gained citizenship through her British father, who worked overseas for a property company.

Many of Catherine's relatives are still in central America, and she has taken time off from an economics course for an extended trip back to her roots. Although England is home, and has been since the family moved back in the late sixties, Catherine is less enamoured with our weather. 'It must be the quarter latin blood in me,' she says with a typical Surrey accent, 'that's why I'm off to Spain or Greece during the summer. But the way the pound is going at the moment I think it will probably be Khios or Lesvos in the Aegean.' During the week, Catherine often stays at a flat in Kilburn with two girlfriends, but, alas, studies prevent her from enjoying the capital's night-life. And the future? Catherine hopes her economics grounding will prove the basis for a career in the law.

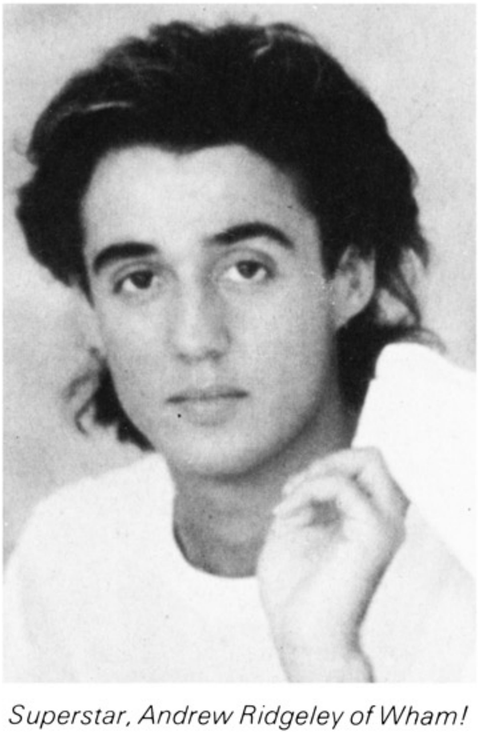
The girls behind the Wham! controversy
Brunette Jackie St Clair

Elisha Scott (left) and Jackie St Clair, the two love-rivals for Andrew.

PHOTOGRAPHED BY
DONALD MILNE

To have two sexy models fighting for your affections would seem a dream come true for most men. But not for pop star Andrew Ridgeley, half of the super duo Wham! Jackie St Clair and Elisha Scott both claim to have spent sexy nights with Andrew, and almost destroyed their friendship when each of the two said he was her boy–friend. The love triangle hit the national press with headlines like 'Punch-up over Pop idol Andy', 'Hands off my Andy' and 'The girls in a fight for Andy'. But Andrew has disputed the girls' stories as they appeared in the press. But Jackie St Clair, a sexy brunette, told us. 'I went to bed with him. It's obvious we did. He was my boyfriend.'



Superstar, Andrew Ridgeley of Wham!

Jackie, 23, claims she met Andrew when her agent sent her to a casting audition for a Wham! video. She didn't get the part, but some time later he recognised her at Tramp disco, and they started going out together. 'I introduced Elisha to him at my birthday party. He was alternating between the two of us. Elisha and I fell out.' The two girls had been best friends before the love rivalry. Then matters came to a head when Andrew invited both girls out to America for the last leg of Wham's US tour. He installed Elisha in the presidential suite, and Jackie in the bridal suite of the same Boston hotel. 'Since then he hasn't called either of us,' she explained.

The girls have now patched up their friendship. 'He is not worth fighting over, and Elisha and I are best friends again. It was fun while it lasted,' she said. Andy told Jackie dark women bring out the animal passion in him, and with her sultry half-Italian, half-Hawaiin looks and 35-23-34 figure, it is easy to see why. Jackie is a successful model, and has appeared in many swimwear and underwear catalogues, in travel brochures, and is also featured on many calendars. She particularly enjoys foreign assignments, and her work has taken her to Tahiti, Bali, Maldives, Antigua, and the Greek Islands. Jackie was also a Miss Nude UK finalist.

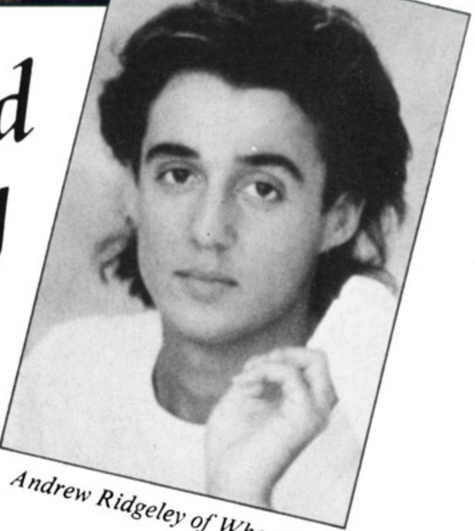
The girls you've asked to see



Andrew Ridgeley of Wham!

The girls behind the Wham! controversy Now meet blonde Elisha Scott

PHOTOGRAPHED BY JOHN ALLUM

Twenty-one-year-old Elisha (formerly Lisa) Scott was the second girl to have her face and figure emblazoned across the papers through her affair with Wham! singer Andrew Ridgeley. But the view that she 'pinched' him from Jackie St Clair (see page 21) was not reflected when we talked to her. 'We met at Jackie's party last July,' she told us, 'and became good friends. He is a very easy going guy, rather footloose, and doesn't take anything seriously. We'd go out for meals and some fun when he was free. Then he would stay at my flat in Finchley Road, leaving early the next morning. Yes, it was a sexual relationship, though not very serious.' However, Ridgeley was quick to deny even meeting her, both in the papers and on the Wogan TV chat show.

But 34-24-34 Elisha refused to accept any denials made about their relationship. She says that she intends to let the affair drop for a while. 'I want to keep a low profile at present, I shall wait and see what the future brings, but I would like to stay friends with him.' There is no doubt, though, about what Elisha finds most attractive in Andrew. 'It's his bottom,' she told us. 'Definitely a man's best feature, and certainly Andrew's.' Whatever happens we shall certainly be seeing more of Elisha in the future. She has just accepted some work in TV commercials, and hopes to be appearing on a comedy show. So the last laugh is on her.

Zoe

PHOTOGRAPHED BY

She is being hailed as the new Samantha Fox, but if anything 18-year-old Zoe Lee is bigger and better. For a start at five feet four she is five inches taller than the star of The Sun, but more spectacular is her figure. At 38D-24-36, she is no less than four inches bigger up top than the busty Miss Fox, and with a personality as pleasing as her figure, she is already winning modelling contracts and admirers all over the country. Mayfair, though, was one of the first to spot the buxom wench's potential, and awarded the rare honour of the centre pages to Zoe.

At this early stage in her modelling career, Zoe is keeping much of her private life under wraps. However, we do know that she was born in London, before moving to Mallow in Cork where she has spent the majority of her youth. It was there that she worked as a receptionist before taking her first steps on the modelling ladder. Work is now so great that she has had to return to England, based in Liverpool.

But although Zoe is relatively new to the modelling scene, she already has all the right ideas. Joni Flynn, one of the country's top models and wife of Donald Milne, the photographer who took these pictures, said she was most impressed by her. 'I've never seen a new model so well organised,' she told us. 'She had everything she needed for the shoot, very neat, and very well cared for.' Joni was also surprised by how well equipped Zoe was. 'She has the largest collection of underwear I have ever seen,' she said. 'Lots of lacy panties, bras, the lot. There's no doubt that this young girl is going a long way.'

Amanda

PHOTOGRAPHED BY JEAN ROUGERON

Readers with a fear of flying should take a lesson from 24-year-old Amanda Stevenson. Until recently she had to be strapped down and filled with gin and tonic before she could relax on an aircraft. Now the Sussex-born 34-23-33 beauty happily flies between her father's three homes in the Algarve, California and Brighton. What sort of work provides that kind of reward, you wonder? 'Oh, he's something big in international banking,' replied Amanda casually. 'Don't ask me quite what. I don't understand it at all. I'm just jolly glad he's not a roadsweeper or suchlike – that would be no fun.'

So what's her advice to other 'aerophobics'? 'Ride in planes as often as you can, and concentrate on what's inside. If I begin thinking that we are thousands of feet up, I start worrying again.' Amanda's cure has been dramatic. In the last year she has made 8 nine-hour Atlantic flights and over a dozen European ones. 'I just find airplanes rather exhilarating now.'

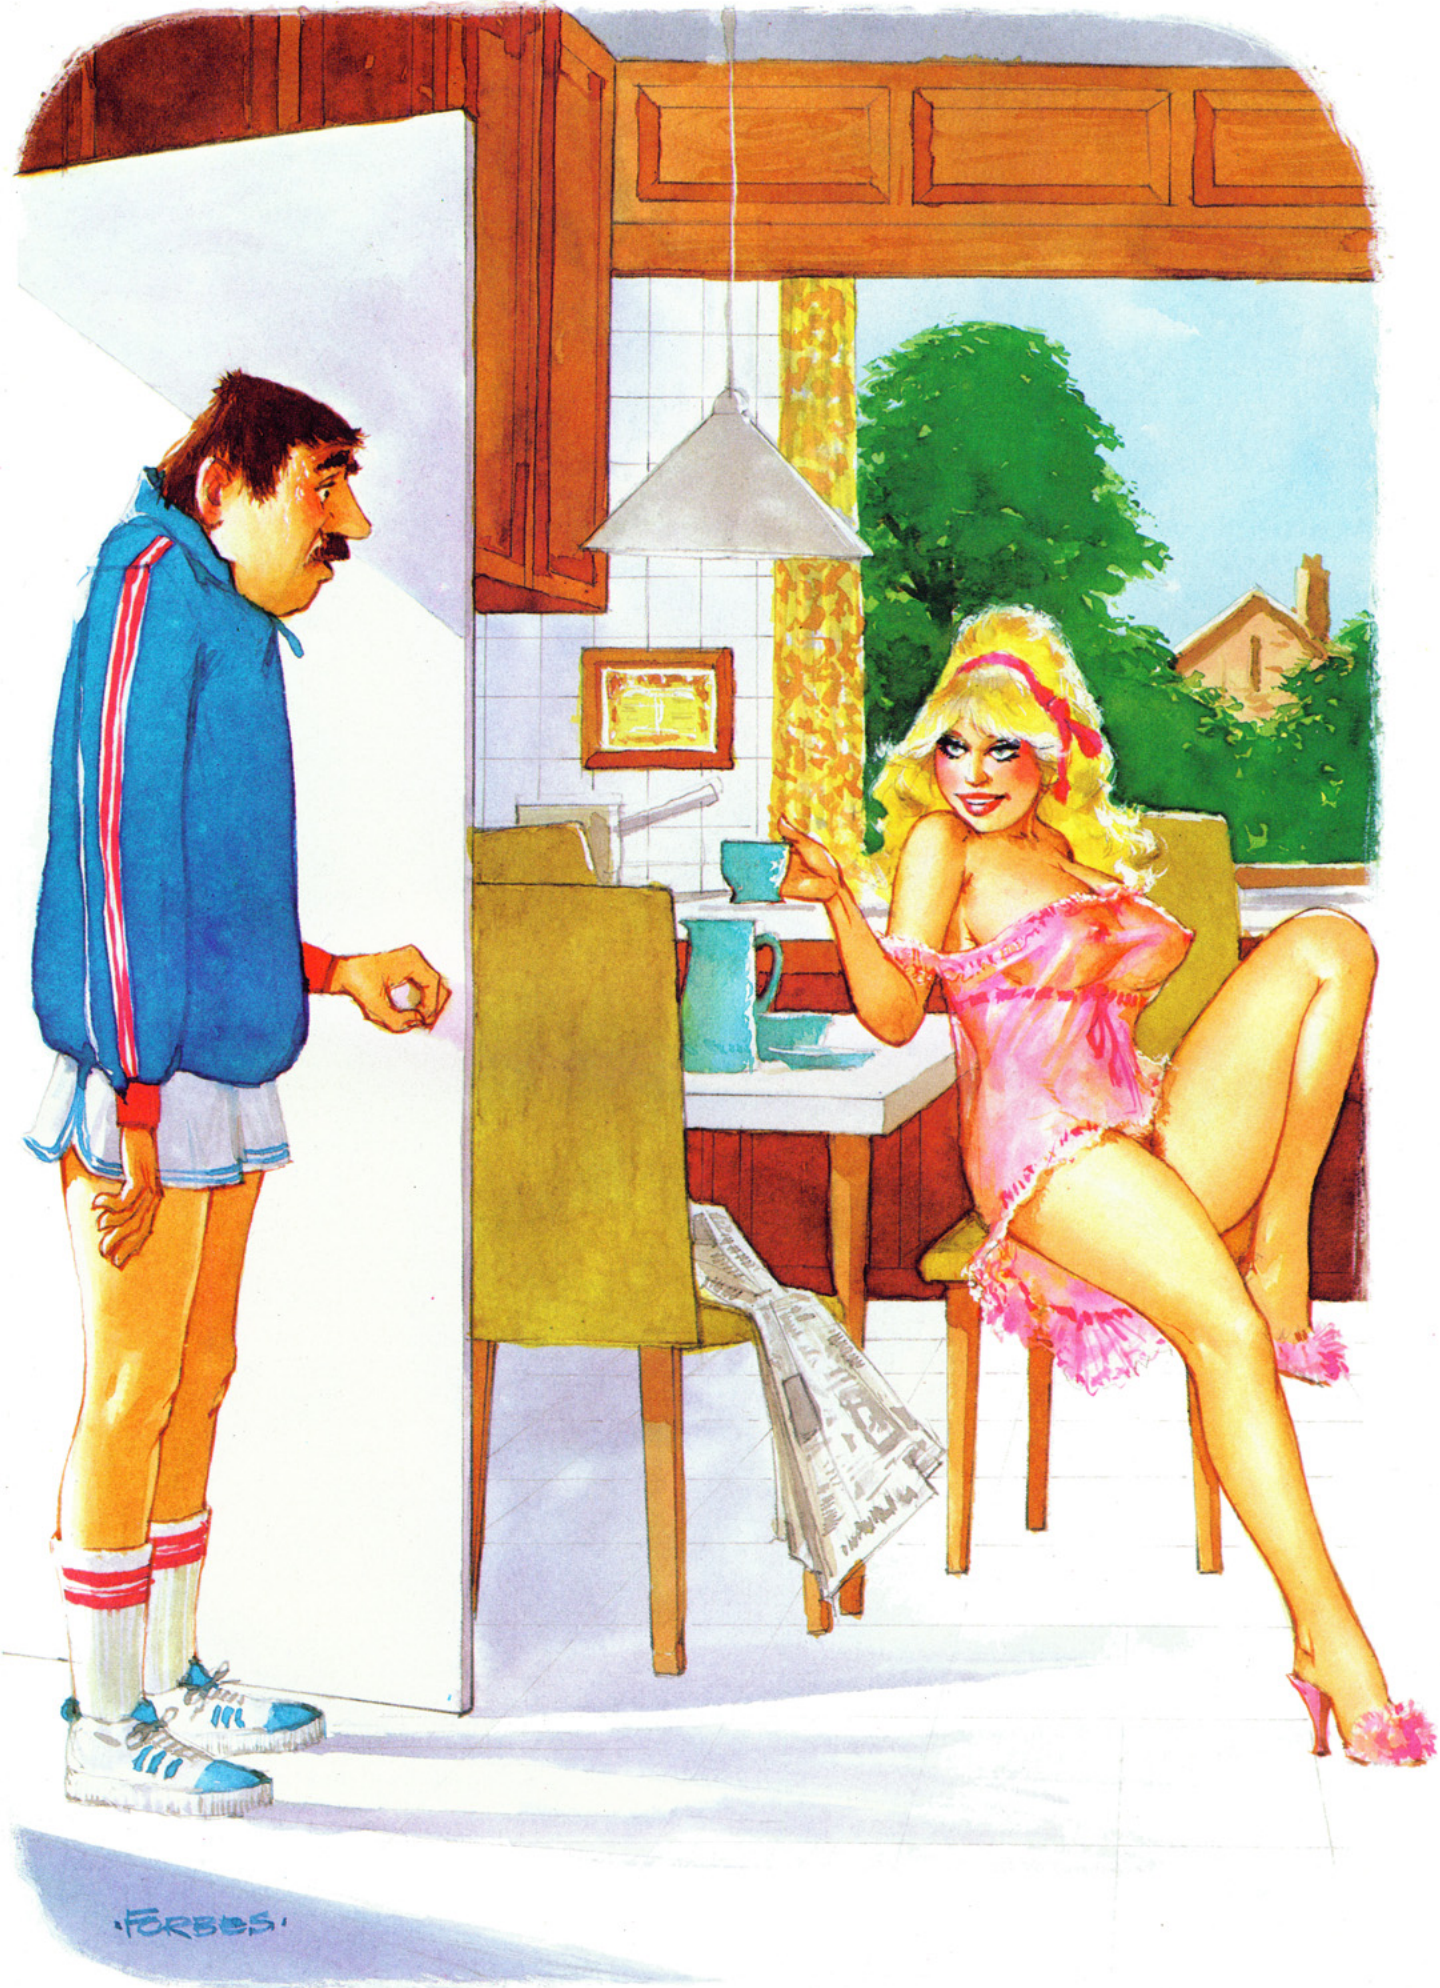
Amanda doesn't always have her head in the clouds, however. She comes down to earth as soon as anyone mentions men. Her views are unequivocal. 'I'm no feminist,' she insisted. 'I believe a man should be prepared to look after and support his girl. In return, I would be happy to give my undying affection.' Sadly though, she has yet to find a man to keep her in the lavish style to which she has become accustomed. 'I have lots of good friends at each of our houses, but none of them are serious,' she told us. In fact, she is happy to admit that her whole life errs on the side of frivolity. 'When I'm 30, I promise I'll settle down,' she said. 'I'll even look for a job.'

Tracy

PHOTOGRAPHED BY GARY NORMAN

If you bump into Tracy Christopher in her favourite pub, The Bell in Harborne Birmingham, whatever you do don't offer her a cigarette. 'After four years of 20 King Size a day, I've given up,' said the 20-year-old, with more than a hint of self-satisfaction in her voice. But her decision hasn't been carried out easily. She admits she is still being sorely tempted, and the boss of the large store in which she works hasn't helped. 'He put me in the booth selling them last week,' she said. 'He reckoned that I'd be so fed up with the sight of cigarettes I'd never want to see one again but he was wrong.' However Tracy has her own plan for stubbing out the habit. 'Every week I go without a cigarette I promise myself a meal at the Midland in Birmingham.'

Are her meals alone or is there a man who appreciates her 34-23-34 figure more than any other? 'Not at present,' sighed Tracy, 'but I'm always on the look-out.' What sort of man is she looking for? 'I quite fancy this guy I see in the Midland most weeks. He's tall, dark-haired with a close-cropped beard. Perhaps if he reads this he'll buy me a brandy.' Tracy shares a flat in the suburb of Edgbaston. 'My flat-mate's tastes are totally different from mine. I enjoy a night bopping at Millionaire's night club. I like loud music, loud clothes and loud cars,' she said. 'If I save enough from not smoking, I'll buy myself a red Ferrari.'



'Frank, I suggest you jog a mile less, and let me help you work off the rest.'

Patricia

PHOTOGRAPHED BY ED ALEXANDER

If you live in the West Country, it is quite possible that you will have spoken to Patricia Bird. She might even have helped you make a connection. Patricia, 23, is a telephone operator in her home town of Bristol, and here is a chance to see the sexy 34-25-36 body that belongs to the husky voice. 'A lot of people have told me my voice is very sexy,' said Patricia, and they try to chat me up while I'm getting their number. But I prefer to see who's asking me out. After all, when you go shopping you want to see the goods first, don't you? I do not have much faith in making blind dates.'

Patricia is a keen sportswoman in her spare time, playing badminton in the winter, and tennis in the summer months. 'I like to keep my body in good condition by doing everything in moderation, well almost everything.' Her favourite hobby is surfing, and most summer weekends Patricia and her friends will throw the boards on the roof rack, and travel down to Cornwall to catch the waves. 'I had a terrible fright last year when I thought I saw a shark's fin just a few yards from me. I swam to shore so fast I think I would have qualified for the Olympics. But it turned out to be a pointed rock. I felt a real fool, but it did look like a shark. I think I've seen Jaws too often.'
